

CLONOULTY McGRATH FAMILY DATA

Revised: October 4, 2015

The first portion of this paper is based on information in the “Descendants of Philip McGrath,” provided by Con Ryan. Additional information was provided by Con, in the form of gravestone transcriptions. The second portion of this paper contains family trees for these same families based on information from the Clonoulty parish registers.

PHILIP MAGRATH

Of Clonoulty Curragh

The McGrath, Clonoulty Curragh descent - From Con Ryan

“Philip McGrath seems to have subdivided his farm between sons James who lived in the first house in laneway and Denis who lived in the second house.

“James McGrath appears to have had no sons to survive to adulthood so a daughter Johanna inherited. She married John Ryan (Con) of Garranmore and the Ryan (con) line continues to this day with P. J. Ryan (Con) and his sister Mary B. Ryan as occupants.

“Denis McGrath was succeeded by his son Patrick who in turn was succeeded by his son Denis. This latter Denis married first Catherine Stapleton and they had a family. Denis married secondly, name unknown, from Glen of Aherlow. About 1915 they sold the Clonoulty farm and moved to the Glen of Aherlow. This ended the McGrath line in Clonoulty Curragh.

“Patrick McGrath married Quinlan. Matthew McGrath married a Horan of Cloghaleigh and Fr. Mattie McGrath PP Tipperary is a grandson. Denis McGrath (1900-) was an auctioneer in Tipperary Town.”
