R. L. Housen, Pres.,
J. S. Thompson, Sec'y.

Advertisement.—We publish to-day a somewhat singular article on this subject, from the New York Leader. We do not vouch for its truth, and can only remark that it is rather strange some of the incidents mentioned in the article did not fall under our observation, if they occurred in this vicinity.

Arrested for Grand Larceny.—A man named Henry McNeil was arrested this morning on a warrant bearing by Officer Pettie, charged with stealing 211 dozen of axes from Gray Davis, worth about $20. He was arraigned and pled not guilty, but the case is not yet disposed of.

SALT POINT WIDE AWAKES.—The regular meeting of the Club will be held on Thursday evening. The monthly election of officers will take place. Good speakers will be in attendance. Democrats should attend and hear good reasons why they should not with the Republican party. The Guard will drill.

Chances.—At the annual meeting of the Syracuse Cricket Club, held at Drew's Hall on Monday evening, June 11th, the following officers were elected:

Luke Collins, President.
Henry Thompson, Vice President.
Stephen Merritt, 2d Vice President.
A. J. Seidman, Secretary and Treasurer.

People's Bakery.—Mr. D. H. Critchett, an experienced Baker, has leased the People's Bakery, No. 62 East Genesee street, and is ready to attend to the wants of customers. His shop is centrally located, and he has every necessary convenience and facility for supplying the public with the best articles in the bakery trade. Call and see the shop, and leave your orders.

A. R. Tinsley.—This well known gentleman has removed to Albany, where he will accept a place in Stanwix Hall, offered to him by Mr. Gay, formerly of this city. Mr. Tinsley has resided in Syracuse for several years, and was formerly engaged in the business of Insurance Agent, but for some time last Fall he kept a first class Saloon. His gentlemanly conduct and pleasing manners have made him universally popular and his numerous acquaintances will regret his departure from our city, but at the same time will all join in wishing him success in his new home at Albany. The proprietor of Stanwix Hall may felicitate himself on having an honest, clever and intelligent Clerk to conduct the office business of that popular Hotel.

A House "Box."—An engineer on the Central Railroad between Rochester and Syracuse, passed over the Niagara Falls division yesterday, to spend the day at the latter place. It was reported at the villages along the line that the Bencea Boy had returned, and was "on his travels," and would return east in the afternoon. The joke was understood by the engineer's companions, and as a consequence he was brought out upon the platform at every station, to receive the congratulations of an admiring crowd. His likeliness to the trans-Alantic hero was not sufficiently striking to render the imposition wholly successful; though the victim could not altogether avoid the persecution resulting from the false so suddenly acquired.—Rochester Express.

Taking the Census.—The Census Marshals are now at work. If each head of a family would take the trouble to make a memorandum of replies to the questions that are required to be answered, and lay it by, so that any member of the family can readily respond to the call of the officer, it will conduce to dispatch, greater accuracy, and be less of an annoyance to all parties. That all may do who desire, we append a list of answers required:

1. Name of every member of the family on the first of June—their age, occupation, where born, whether married during the past year—attending school during the past year—whether deaf and dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper, or convict—All over the city years old that can read and write. When they are colored persons they are to be designated as such—Value of real estate owned, whether in the city or any other place, and not in mortgage or encumbrance, including land, stock, plate, jewelry, furniture, etc., everything not real estate.
2. Name of every person who died during the year ending June 1st, 1880, with age, sex, color, married or widowed, place of birth, profession or occupation, month in which the death occurred, disease or cause of death, and number of days ill.
3. Manufacturers—Name of company, or individual, producing articles to the annual value of $500. Name of business, capital invested, real and personal, quantities and kinds of raw material used including fuel, and their values, kind of motive power, average number of hands employed, male and female, and quantities, kinds, and value of products.

SEWING.—The sun umbrellas now having very fashionable with the ladies, are the most sensible institutions in the line we have seen. They answer the purpose for which they were intended; that of keeping the hot rays from the face—which the fiction denominated parasols are often very far short of doing.

ACCIDENT NEAR BALDWINVILLE.—We learn that a harness maker named Cla's Senger, who resides at Baldwinville, met with a severe accident this forenoon. He was out in the woods in "Sixty," a few miles from Baldwinville, shooting pigeons, when his gun was accidentally discharged, the whole charge passing through the palm of his left hand, inflicting a severe and dangerous wound.

A WARNING TO GIRLS.—One of our subscribers desires us to state that young girls wearing straw hats with little bells hanging from the brim, will, in the short space of two months, become cross-eyed. He has seen instances in his neighborhood of malformation in the eyes caused by wearing these little bells, and is desirous that the subject should be brought to the attention of parents.

LECTURE ON WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—Miss Roberts, a lady of superior abilities, and who comes to us highly recommended, will read an essay on "The social position of unmarried women," at the Unitarian church in this city, at a quarter past three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Her readings elsewhere have drawn good houses and given excellent satisfaction. The admission fee is only 15 cents, which is low enough to secure her a large audience.

POLICE.—John Cunningham was arrested for being drunk. Sent up for 20 days.

Madrida King was arrested for drunkenness and vagrancy. Discharged.

Desdemona Woodruff was arrested for keeping a disorderly house. Fined $10 or 60 days.

Eliza Phillips, Ann McGraw, Jenny Kessler, (alias Virgin Jenny), were arrested for being inmates of a house of prostitution. Fined $10 or 60 days.

Lewis Gurnsey and John Rhyne were arrested for being inmates of a disorderly house. Gurnsey was fined $5, and Rhyne $10 or 60 days.

PICKPOCKETS.—The Utica Telegraph of yesterday has the following paragraph:

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—Three "gentlemen" pickpockets passed through here on the 11th A. M. train to-day, going west. As they are members of an insinuating profession, people should be wary of cultivating their acquaintance.

One of these light-fingered gentlemen attempted to practise his vocation here; but he was discovered, and in his hurry to escape he dodged under one of the cars and dropped his booty. He escaped however and is still at large. Travellers will do well to keep a sharp look out for such fellows.

FIRE.—A small wooden building or shed on Bank Alley, in the rear of the Episcopal Church, caught fire this morning, and was entirely destroyed. The building was owned and occupied by Messrs. Kenyon & Potter as a place for storing oil and boiling Japan. One of the clerks, Mr. Wickes, was engaged in boiling Japan, when the fluid overflowed, and in a moment the interior of the building was in a blaze. Mr. Wickes escaped with slight burns on his hands, face and neck, but not serious. The loss of building and stock is about $200—no insurance. The firemen turned out with alacrity, and after the building was destroyed they proceeded to tear down the chimney. But the Stone Church was spared!

Masonic.—The Grand Lodge of F. and A. Masons, has elected the following grand officers of the order:

Grand Master.—M. W. John W. Simons.
Deputy Grand Master.—R. W. Finley M. King.
Senior Grand Warden.—R. W. Clinton P. Paige.
Junior Grand Warden.—R. W. Stephen H. Johnson.
Grand Secretary.—R. W. James M. Austin.
Grand Treasurer.—R. W. Charles L. Church.
Grand Chaplains.—R. W. Salem Town, R. W. and Rev. H. C. Vogel, R. W. and Rev. R. L. Skommer.
Grand Purveyor.—W. Owen Brown.
Grand Tyler.—W. Sewell Fish.

Overseer County.—The County Board of Excise granted the following among other hotel and store licenses at their recent session in Oswego and Pulaski:

Constantine—Hotels.—Mordecai Cox, Sylvester All, Henry Kimball, Platt B. Oakley, Ira P. Brown, Cyrus Marble. Store—William H. Foster.
Polaski—Hotels.—S. Mason, J. Mathersson, R. Lloyd, Stores—G. W. Fuller, L. Jones, Port Ontario—Hotels—B. Ripson, H. Doane, Richard Station—Store—L. Doane, Sandy Creek—Store—O. House, Albion—Hotel—A. Holton. Store—S. Comstock.
Williamstown—Hotel.—H. Towseley—Store—A. R. Tinsley, E. A. Sperry.
Amboy—Hotel.—David Garber.
Paris—Hotel.—T. P. Hayes.

A Gem of Art.—Mr. Editor: Some few days since I saw in Mr. Carpenter's window, a portrait of Mr. Jerome, as I supposed, painted by Charles L. Elliott of New York, and the same as exhibited in the Mechanic's Fair last Spring. But on enquiring, I found that there was quite a story connected with the picture.

Mr. Middleton, who owns the original, loaned it to Mr. S. Thayer, to copy, and Mr. T. made so careful a copy that Mr. M., and many others who saw the pictures side by side, were not a little puzzled to say which was which. And Mr. and Mrs. M., did really criticize the wrong picture, while they both were in the artist's studio. As a test of his success, feeling some little professional pride, the artist sent home the copy (or permitted it to be taken home, as the direction of Mr. M.) When the little daughter of Mr. M., discovered that there was wanting on the back of the canvas the stencil mark of the dealer in artist's materials who sold the canvas in New York, which was on the back of the original picture. Then began a more critical examination which was continued for some time. Mr. T., standing neutral as to giving any decision in the matter, only saying that he was ready to change pictures at any time when Mr. M. was dissatisfied with the one he had taken home. And it appears that the exchange has now been made after having both pictures at his residence for some time. The real stalling talent of the artist is apparent in this little bit of success, and it is very safe to say that beyond any further question an artist who can so successfully copy the portraits, (and one of the best ones) of the best portrait painter of the nation, deserves a high rank. If then Charles L. Elliott, is an honor to our whole country, Mr. Sanford Thayer, is certainly an honor to our city of Syracuse.

Common Council.
An exciting and interesting session of the Common Council took place last evening. A number of outsiders were present, and the proceedings created considerable interest.

A full Board was present, with the Mayor in the Chair. After reading the minutes several petitions were presented, and among them one for a Lamp on the Look on Vinegar Hill, and another in relation to dogs running at large.

Several reports of committees were also received, and among them one from the committee on Highways, reporting that the committee had examined the sewer in several places, and find it considerably obstructed by sand and earth, and the committee believe it is not large enough for the purposes intended. They recommend a larger sewer through Fayette street to the creek, to carry off the surplus water.—Report adopted.

A communication was received from the commissioners appointed to assess the damages for extending Burnet street. The whole amount of damage is fixed at $760, and a portion of the property is reported to be benefited by the improvement.

The special committee on the bill of J. H. House, reported that the Council had no legal right to grant the prayer of the petitioner.—Adopted.

Ald. Geer offered a resolution appropriating $75 for the purpose of celebrating the Fourth of July, provided the citizens hold a general celebration. Lost—4 yeas, 4 noes.

A resolution was adopted for the extension of Green street, provided the owners of property would donate the land.

The salary of the Surveyor and Engineer and Sup't of Streets, was fixed at $1,000, by a full vote of the Council.

A ballot was had for Measure of Wood on Clinton Square, and Freeman Hicks received 8 votes and was declared duly elected.

Ald. Geer presented a lengthy document drawn up by J. C. Hunt, as counsel for John A. Green, Jr. The document was understood to be a Mandamus to compel the Council to proceed with the improvement of Clinton st., or show cause before the next court at Martinsburgh, Lewis county, why the improvement should not go forward.

Several motions were made for referring the paper to select committees and the Mayor. Ald. Geer opposed the reference to the Mayor, on the ground that the Mayor had already vetoed the measure and was biased against it.

Ald. Collins remarked that he did not expect to see such a color as this to the measure. He was more than ever convinced that there had been iniquity in crowding this matter through, and now it was proposed to force the Council to proceed with the improvement. He was of the opinion that the Council are legally required to take the property, but he would like to see if it could not be extricated from that difficulty.

The Mayor remarked that he had taken legal counsel on that point, and had based his vote of the measure on the principle that the city was not liable. There was no obligation either on the part of the city to take property, or the owners to give it up.

Ald. Geer replied the idea that he had practiced any iniquity in connection with the measure.

Ald. White referred to the rule giving such legal matters to the Mayor.

Ald. Geer desired to know if the city had been sued? He also took occasion to remark that he thought it wrong and undignified on the part of the Mayor to take part in the proceedings of the Council.

The Mayor called the Alderman to order, and explained his position. He was called upon to rule on the matter, and was doing nothing more than he was warranted in doing as a presiding officer.

Ald. Geer called the Mayor to order, and intimated that he was pettifogging. After some further remarks from various Aldermen, the matter was referred to the Mayor, to take counsel and report to the Council.

A petition was presented from John Hoyer, asking permission to put up a sign across the street.

Ald. Collins said this was a violation of the Ordinance, and the Council had no right to grant such permission.

Ald. White moved to take up the charges against Dunnie Stewart, Postmaster of the First Ward.

The charges were read as follows: 1st. Taking a bribe from Lot Phillips to let his Geese run at large. 2d. making unnecessary disturbance on the Sabbath. 3d. using partiality in permitting some persons to take their animals without fees, while others were charged full fees. 4th, making political capital by reporting about the neighborhood that his proceedings were investigated and performed in obedience to the commands of a Republican Mayor and Republican Council.

On motion the first charge was taken up, and Lot Phillips sworn.—He testified that he had some choice geese he thought a great deal of, and hearing that Stewart was going to drive all the geese to pound, he called on him and gave him a dollar for the privilege of allowing his geese to run at large. After some weeks the people complained that Mr. Phillips' geese were allowed to run while theirs were impounded and then Mr. Stewart drove Phillips' geese to the pound. They were taken to the pound several times and let out by Mr. Stewart without fees, but finally three of the geese died and Mr. Phillips got tired of the operation, after having paid for the privilege of letting his geese run at large and made the complaint.

Patrick Cooney, Jr., was called and sworn. He testified that he knew that Mr. Phillips' geese were allowed to run at large while others were shut up in pound.

A discussion arose between the Aldermen, and Mr. Cooney was not allowed to go on with his testimony.

Ald. Collins did not consider the acceptance of a dollar by the Postmaster as a bribe. The Pound Keeper was not required to drive geese to pound, any more than any other citizen, and he did not agree to keep them out of pound in case other persons brought them to it. He thought the charge was a stupid one and moved to dismiss it.

Ald. White thought Ald. Collins was not sound on the goose question!

Mr. Cooney desired to know who was responsible for damages done to animals by the Postmaster. The Pound Keeper himself was not a responsible man, and he thought the body that put such a man in office and kept him there should be responsible for his official conduct.

The motion to dismiss the first charge of bribery, was adopted. Ayes 8, noes 2.

Ald. Geer moved to dismiss the second charge. Adopted—ayes 4, noes 2.

The 3d charge was taken up and several Aldermen contended that the Postmaster had a right to remit the fees if he saw fit to do so. He was not obliged to collect poundage or report to the Council.

The Pound Keeper admitted that he had let some poor persons take their animals from the pound without fees because he thought they needed the money more than he did.

Ald. Collins remarked that the whole trouble seemed to have arisen because the officer had done his duty, and he was the only officer of the city who had done his duty since Ald. C. had been connected with the city government. Perhaps that was sufficient cause for turning him out of office.

The question was taken on dismissing this charge and it was lost on the ground that the defendant had admitted that he had allowed some persons to take their animals without paying the fees.

Kennell Eaton, was called and sworn; He testified that Mr. Stewart had his geese and was driving them to pound, and he offered him the geese to let them go, but the Poundmaster refused. Mr. Eaton then interfered and took the geese from the Poundmaster, and shut them up. She was prosecuted and the case was settled by paying $2. At another time the Poundmaster drove eleven of Mr. Eaton's geese to pound and kept them there several days, some of them died, and then the Poundmaster told Eaton he might take them away without fees. He believed the geese or goings died from the want of food and water.

Mr. Stewart remarked that the geese were killed by a thunder storm.

Mr. Eaton resumed his testimony—His wife called on Mr. Stewart and wanted to redeem a portion of the geese, but he refused to let her have them; he understood that some of the geese got out through a hole made in the ground, and fell on the grass, and a neighbor found one of them in the street and brought it home.

Mr. Stewart said there was no hole for them to get out of, the one that was carried home was thrown over the fence by him after it was done.

Mr. Eaton replied that the geese was alive and well when it was brought home and was living yet.

Mr. Cooney offered himself as counsel for the prosecution, and called a witness to prove that the geese of this kind is common in the city, and that the testimony was ruled out.

Ald. Geer moved that the charge be dismissed. Lost, Ayes 2, Noes 4.

After some further discussion the question was taken on the removal of the poundmaster, and it was lost. Ayes 2, Noes 4.

Ald. Collins moved to dismiss the last charge. Ald. Geer considered this the gravest charge of all, and ironically remarked that it was sufficient ground for his removal, the great Republic party of the city should not be disgraced and suffer reproach for the conduct of a Poundmaster in the first ward! After a few more remarks in the same strain from the Aldermen, the vote was taken and the charge was dismissed. Ayes 6, Noes 2.

The Council then adjourned for one week.
