

Top picture shows scene on farm of Sidney Price on the Oswego road after storm.
 No. 1—Home of Sidney Price on the Oswego road.
 No. 2—Barnyard and ruins of E. J. Bennett's home on the Euclid road.
 No. 3—Collapsed barn on the William Michael farm.
 No. 4—Crowd looking over the collapsed home of Charles Chapman, who was killed.
 No. 5—A mirror thrown 100 feet from the Chapman home, but which was not broken.
 No. 6—Hay stack at the William Davis farm near Pitcher Hill. The barn was blown away, but the hay did not move.
 No. 7—Cross indicates where Charles Chapman was found.
 No. 8—Trolley car at Long Branch which jumped the fence.
 No. 9—District school No. 7 leveled; school bell in foreground.
 No. 10—Bedroom at home of Charles Eberwood on the Euclid road; picture taken from roof of adjoining barn.

